Of course I wouldn't take out a 24-hour cancellation policy. 17 mornings (SkyDive Day) I called Blue SKIES (Skydive company) to inform you directly that it is Adelaide, unless I have been tested and cleaned up, of course I am aware of the new restrictions imposed, so ok this is quite flat this is quite flat this would not be doubting a refund, I would not be in doubt to fly back to Adelaide 18 programs to fly back to Adelaide. Law Abiding 17. Email Get Your Guide TO RE: About this situation they're responding to - Get Your Guide:Cairns: Tandem Skydive from 15,000 Feetin cancellation policy lets us cancel your booking 24 hours in advance before the event starts. Acceptable documents include a notice confirming that government agencies (e.g. hospitals, laboratories or government agencies) must be quarantined. GetYourGuide Support hotel announced that it had contacted me to stay in the room late on the evening of November 16 implementing government regulations. He even shared The Government Link, which envisions these criteria and complex details. I directly told me that there are no official documents, but this suits the category/criteria towards - it was common sense and to be responsible. You do not need direct contact if you clearly meet these criteria. I presented them with messages in my tests that confirmed the date/time if they could work, but Official documents stipulating a 14-day quarantine. This was all detailed on the official government website outlining the 14-day mandatory isolation (the link I already shared). I even sent them my flight information for this support because I was considered a hotspot high risk individual in Adelaide. Unfortunately, we cannot refund you because we are unable to process your request without open documents from the Queensland government. It really upsets me that we are unable to offer you a refund of your money as we strictly follow the policy and hope you understand the situation, and in our position we can only follow the same procedure. GetYourGuide Support Only this is unacceptable. This is a volatile situation that forces everyone into uncertainty, so far it does not make special exceptions policies for COVID 19, nothing new. The airlines didn't have it, but they had to make unprecedented exceptions. Do they say they still have a strict policy, even for CoVID19? Everyone is really impressed with this Pandemic??? NEVER AGAIN!!! Why am I being punished for something that no one has control over!!! Please tell me how fair this is????? The responses I received from your Customer Service Team cannot be serious!!! Do the right thing and Return it to Me..... When I was in Dubai, I definitely wanted to do a desert safari and I wasn't disappointed! It was extremely great! I'm not in the dunes, at sunset, in sand Everything was perfect! I recommend it before too many people, before the season (or much later). Well, so we reached the boat with some friends so we booked xcruise cruise for dinner trip which we discovered was sitting on the upper deck without advance, so we complained like a 7 month old baby who couldn't stand the hot climate there so after a while we had a table on the lower AC deck where we started all the troubles. There were 2 portable AC near the kiosk at one end that bearyl worked instead of any AC and nothing at the other end of the boat we were sitting on. I complained to each waiter and the only answer I received was that AC was at the maximum operating level. I spoke to the crew leader with a tight tone for just 10 minutes before I went back to the AC hot grill point so my wife ended up divided ac got the baby on the other side of the boat. my friends stood on the upper deck carrying high demysit for the sake of some breath. All 1 taste of food sweet chicken lollipaps used to fry all dishes of the same oil as if the fish next to it tasted bad as medals. For his birthday I asked the day before for a small installation I had the first 2 options I had 2 options and I went and gave them the cake cruise timing of preferred 2 hours so I paid 250 aed extra to get the cake from otherwise cruising to bring you to be a surprize before. After dinner there is a cake here approaching the table of 1 waiter. spoiling the right surprize, this was not enough cake without any candles or at least no one said happy birthday only in the back if you needed to wrap the cake to go box for crew leader cake. No one offered us anything for drinks I had to ask the waiter to check our drink options, I also asked the waiter for a cup of tea after dinner neither came nor did the waiter or any of his colleagues make it to the end of the cruise. In the bottom line for 250 aed I can get much better dinner in many places so I don't have this cruise recommnd at all. All.
